Ration Kids Dog Show sponsored last night after a long illness. by the Kingston Recreation Department will have an extra attraction Wednesday at Forsyth Park during the Ulster County Fair. The finals of the Dog Show, involving winners from all local parks and the Recreation Parks at New Paltz and Cornwall on the Hudson, will start promptly at 2 p. m., but at 1:30 p. m. the spectators as well as all contestants will be treated to a special Obedience Performance by a doberman pinscher under the personal direction of Mrs. Kathryn Seitz.

The pinscher, Taaffe, is owned by Mrs. John Rogaski of Woodstock and will be put through its exercise by Mrs. A. J. Seitz who is an instructor in the Ulster County Dog Training Club, Inc. The dog is a graduate of the Ulster County Training Club and indications are that the show will be enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Seitz and Alton Feistel will be the judges for the final of the many Dog Shows put on in the city and county by the Recreation Department. Prizes for the winners in the seven preliminary classifications will be dog lamps, trophies, ribbons, wall plaques, various novelties while the owner of the dog judged best of the Show will receive a large trophy and a bicycle.

Pact Is Reached By Leather Firms

HUDSON (P)-Agreement on three-year contract calling for a wage increase totaling 20 cents an hour and other benefits ended a strike yesterday by 330 workers against two leather goods manufacturing firms. The members of the Internation-

Payload Playload

There's room for a half ton of freight, and plenty of V-8 "muscle" to haul it up hills without a huff or a puff

The loading is easy, too! With one hand you can open the liftgate and tailgate. Then, you also get the widest loading area in the low-price field, thanks to Ford's wrap-around liftgate. And, to go with the Ford wagon's big carrying capacity, you can get top performance from the biggest V-8 in Ford's field!

There's room for nine big six-footers, and these new Ford wagons carry them in sedah comfort

With all this, plus the fact that model for model Ford is the lowest priced of the low-price three, * it's no wonder Ford wagons outsell 'em all! What's more, if you see us while we're celebrating nearly 3 decades of Ford wagon leadership,† you'll get the highest trade-in allowance and best deal of the season on a Ford wagon.

SOMETHING NEW IN POLITICS

people imagine there's never anything new in it. But there is, and the 1960 Republican contenders for the presidency may be the ones to prove it.

has been shaping up between Vice President Nixon and retiring Sen. William K. Knowland of California. Knowland made the prosstate next year.

Knight has indicated an intention to run again, which would give California one of the hottest primary fights in many years.

the best thing.

Should he battle for the governorship, but however, then the big question would be where Nixon would throw his very substantial weight.

politics might appear. Some sources indicate he may lend his backing to Knowland, who could turn out to be his chief 1960 rival if he went on to win the 1958 governorship election.

Seldom in political history would you be tenders are not in the habit of helping to build each other up. Their normal instincts (Copyright, 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.) are all the other way.

But Nixon has a problem. His dislike of Knight is personal as well as political, and is well known. To get behind the governor would look bad, and would go against his grain.

There's no way to stay aloof from the struggle, since the Southern Caifornia Republican organization is largely Nixon's, and would have to take a definite stand in any such contest.

Possibly the vice president believes his status with respect to the 1960 nomination is so strong that he can give such aid and still not suffer unduly. But obviously there baby teeth. I think nothing should be done, at is a risk involved and politicians as a breed least for a while, since in all probability the baby do not run around deliberately trying to increase their risks.

It could be that Nixon just doesn't think he has any other choice in the matter, and simply will have to let the chips fall where they may.

UNSELFISH SERVICE

Even those who disagreed with Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense credit him with great integrity and intense dedication to his duties. 'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY A SENATOR AND THE COURT

Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York said something at the meeting of the American Bar Association which seemed to me to be wrong, if not altogether immoral. He advised the lawyers that it was their duty to back up the authority of the Supreme Court with public opinion whether or not they agreed with its decisions.

How a man can, in conscience, support what he does not believe to be true is not within my understanding although it is often done by those who wish to get on and to make no enemies. The intellectuals call it conforming, but they themselves are as guilty as others because if they do not conform to intellectual patterns that are popular at the moment, they grow unpopular in their own circles. Only those do not conform to current patterns who are impervious to the ap-

The Senator from New York would have one applaud (for that is what support by public opinion means) the Court as a duty rather than a judgment. Surely it is impossible to applaud Mr. Justice Brennan for his clipped quotation of a precedent from Chief Justice John Marshall, omitting 16 sentences until it becomes a misquotation.

It is true that one likes to speak well of the President of the United States, but Eisenhower would be among the first to deny that one must applaud his every act, speak favorably of his every utterance. Surely, Eisenhower would not want anyone to suggest that he is a megalomaniac as were Hitler and Stalin who could not tolerate a contrary point of view. Eisenhower is a modest man who would deny such superiority over others, even though he holds a high position Politics is a pretty old game and so some in the country. If the Court is to be applauded for whatever it does the President should also be and then we cease to be a free people and become a nation of sycophants.

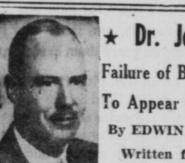

I raise this question because it is becoming increasingly usual to be told that one should not criticize the President as it makes him lose face abroad; that Congress should grant him what-For some time now a nomination race ever he desires lest his dignity at home be lessened; that his appointments be praised even when they reduce themselves to ridicule. Keeping Current...For Economy!

In the illustration above, you see a very happy man at a very wonderful moment.

The title, the keys and the car are his—and he's starting out on his first journey at the wheel.

Of course, there's not much doubt as to why he decided to purchase a new Cadillac. Like everyone else who selects the "car of cars", she did it to "keep current", so to speak, on the new miracles of performance and beauty and comfort that Cadillac engineers and stylists have made available to the world's motorists.

But coming to Cadillac, as he did, at this particular time of the year, we also suspect that he was inspired by the added motive of practicality.

For in addition to the normal Cadillac economies of modest purchase price, low operating cost and high resale value-Cadillac dealers are, at this time, seasonally prepared to make Cadillac ownership even more attractive than ever.

Because of the demand for used cars and because of increased production of the Cadillac car itself, the odds are that this gentleman received both a generous allowance on his previous car and prompt delivery of his new Cadillac.

All in all, he took advantage of the "golden moment" that so many motorists all over America have been waiting for-an opportunity to enjoy motordom's greatest virtues in combination with motordom's greatest value.

Have you considered how wonderful it would be to step into a Cadillac of your own? Then, you should pay your dealer a visit-spend an hour on the highway in the luxury of Fleetwood coachcrafting—and get the facts for yourself.

You'll agree, we know, that the car is Cadillac -and the time is now!

DOCTOR ...

This possessive phrase is familiar to all. It represents the profound confidence American people have in physicians. But do you really have a family physician?

Even though you may have been fortunate, not requiring medical care, it is stitch-in-time wisdom to establish a "family doctor" relationship.

Simply contact the physician of your choice, requesting that you would like him to serve your family should the need arise.

And if such a need arises, our prescription department is prepared to serve

Atonement Lutherans Plans Sector Project

The sector project of the United Lutheran Church in America, will be used at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of fall, according to an announcement today by the Rev. Richard I. Crossland, pastor:

"The 11 week program, beginning the first week in September, has at the heart of it, three questions," the pastor said. 1. What have we been doing as a congregation; 2. What should we be doing; 3. What can we do as a congregation.

It is expected that more than 150 members will participate in the planning of the project to make sure that all of the more than 500 members of the congregation take part in the program of deepening people's spiritual lives.

Franklin P. Clum, Jr., of Elm street, Saugerties, chairman of stewardship for the congregation, announced today the appointment of the general committee for the project. KRIPPLEBUSH CHURCH

Kripplebush ME In December 1857

An anniversary booklet, distributed this week at the rededication service of the Kripplebush Methodist Church, now observing its 100th anniversary, traces the interesting history of the church.

During a series of revival services held in various homes, and particularly the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wood, "people of erect the 'Little White Church' by the side of the road," the booklet explains.

"From thoughts and words," action was taken and work was begun in 1857 and completed in December of that same year when the church was dedicated. The booklet continues:

"At this time there was a great deal of rejoicing on the part of Stone Ridge Methodists for it was their pastor, the Rev. Ananias Ackerly, who convinced the hundreds who listened to his eloquent preaching that this was the proper step to take. For in this village of Stone Ridge in the year 1799 or 1800 Methodism was established and from this 'mother church' in Ulster County another church had begun.

World famous Ringling Brothers clown, "GRITZ, and his little mule GRAVY" wifl appear in person tomorrow morning at 10 A.M. in the parking lot next to the Rondout-Woodstock Oil Co., and directly across the street from EVERETT AND TREADWELL. See his famous exploding car and his wonderfully trained dog tomorrow morning from 10-11 A.M.

FOR THE "FAIR"

"GRITZ AND GRAVY" will also be appearing at the Dutchess County Fair along with us. And as a reminder to visit our booth at the "Fair", here are some of the features we will have on display:

FOUR OUTSTANDING VALUES IN 4-DOOR SEDANS

This is the ideal season to trade up to the convenience and luxury of a new 4-door Studebaker or Packard... for the school days ahead, for business use, for Autumn trips and a Winter of trouble-free, care-free comfort. Here are four cars of value and dependability unsurpassed, in a range of price and performance to match your budget and daily driving.

Studebaker PRESIDENT CLASSIC-Longest of all Studebaker sedans, with a wheelbase of 120.5 inches for a smooth "between-the-wheels" ride. Powered with a 225 h.p V-8 Sweepstakes engine. Available with Flightomatic transmission or Overdrive as optional extras.

The President Classic offers big car luxury, at a price competitive with 2-door models of other makes.

Packard TOWN SEDAN-This car has spaciousness: leg room, head room, entry and exit room. It has performance, with the only supercharged V-8 in the sedan field. It has luxury, in fine fabrics, soundproofing, and color-keyed interiors . . . all combined with a riding ease that cushions the road with the distinctive touch of a Packard.

Studebaker COMMANDER DE LUXE - The four doors lead to luxury, in instrumentation and driving ease, in fabrics and cushioning . . . lighting, soundproofing and insulation. Under the hood is a V-8 engine . . . 195 h.p. with four-barrel carburetor. Optional Flightomatic transmission or Overdrive.

PORT EWEN GARAGE, Inc.,

Studebaker CHAMPION DE LUXE-The thrifty Sweepstakes Six engine gives this fashion-styled sedan an operating economy unmatched in other makes of full-sized cars. In all: 4-door convenience, Champion economy, Studebaker craftsmanship, for value to match its long car looks.

For the best car values ever . . .

One of the advantages of getting to game by the simple process of raising an opening no-trump bid to three is that the opponents will be defending

Alan Bell, young Chicago Life Master, who sat East expected that his partner would open a club but there was nothing he could do about it. He discarded the three of hearts and noted that South's play of the king was unnecessary.
South led the deuce of spades and Alan won dummy's jack with his ace. It was now time for thought. Most players would automatically lead a heart. After all, six hearts are a lot of hearts. Not Alan!

South had to have at least two hearts for his no-trump bid. That meant that West could not hold more than two hearts. Even if West held two hearts and one was the king Alan could see no future in that suit. He might establish some heart tricks but he would never get in the lead to make them.

The only ray of hope was in the diamond suit and Alan led the deuce of diamonds. South ducked and West won with the king. Back came the ten of diagame had flown out the window. He held off on that second diamond lead also but Alan continued the suit and established his partner's nine spot.

Declarer could take three spades, three hearts, one diamond and one club but that was all. The quick shift to diamonds had not allowed him time to establish any club tricks.

THIS 'N' THAT

Of many landmarks I recall, the Oyster House out-shines them all. The walls were done a spotless white that shone by day and gleamed at night. And small white tables, row on row, reflected such a homey glow. The beaming owner and his spouse served table at the Oyster House. And you could order oysters friedor raw, horseradish on the side. But, oh! that mammoth sav-ry stew with big fat oysters peeping through! Topped with a lump of butter (real!)—one bowl was plenty for a meal. The Oyster House I have in mind is now extremely hard to find. Dear Readers, it has fled afar. Actually, Summer puts a tough strain on tires. Weak spots-bruises-all pose an added threat. Hidden flaws become danger spots. Tire inspection is the only one sure safeguard. A few minutes spent by a tire expert may save you hours of "road work"-and possible serious trouble.

Big Favorite

The Hoboes, a big favorite in the New England area for many years, rate on a par with the Detroit Clowns, House of David and other road attractions of recent years. They appeared in Kingston a couple seasons back and staged a great show.

Chatting with Sam Mann at Dietz Stadium in the cool of the August evening turns back the baseball calendar many years . . . to the era of the pre-war Kingston Recreations and the more fabulous Kingston Colonials of earlier vintage.

There are few Sam Manns left . . . avid baseball fans who defy the lure of television and span the decades from the original limited the Dutchmen to six Colonials to the watered-down version currently representing Kingston in the New York-New Jersey League.

Occasionally, we also see Jesse Schlesinger seated in the went the route for the Dutchstaged by the inimitable panto-mine artist during the 1957 sea-specimens—Mann and Schlesinger—in this day of automation. They are rare men, yielding nine hits and pitching effectively except in the specimens—Mann and Schlesinger—in this day of automation. They have a ticket something very few people are doing and They buy a ticket, somthing very few people are doing, and Knicks picked up all their runs. huddle through several innings.

In nostalgic restrospect, they must think of Bud Culloton Jack Robins, Matty Deegan, the volatile Harry Schirick, Bill Schwab, the Dugan brothers, Art Smith and Johnny Murphy of the original Colonials.

They must recall the brilliant exploits of Billy Ostrom, Ralph Coleman, Chuck Yanni, Whitey Kowalyck, Buddy Van Herpe and Eddie Sabo of the Recreations. They're neither harsh nor arbitrary in judging the past with the present. If they were, they wouldn't show up at Dietz Stadium. They are solid baseball fans, fair-minded enough to realize that this is 1957 and not 1925-26 and 1940-43.

There are those who still cling to the dream that small town baseball will come back, after fans have been saturated with TV. But people seldom pay for something they can get free. Is that why the Giants are leaving New York and the Dodgers are headed for San Francisco? If giant boroughs like Manhattan and Brooklyn and an outlying metropolitan area of 20-million persons turn their back on the Dodgers and Giants, how can we expect anything more than the pitiful few who make the weekly pilgrimage to the local stadium.

If we had our choice of all the semi-pro managers in the region, we'd have to go with Fritz Jordan, the peppery Arlington High Doyle, 3b school coach. Jordan runs his teams with the professional finesse Lawson, p of a major league squad. Dutchmen Gain Split In NY-NJ Road Games

Clark Mains Nips N. Y. Bullets, 5-4

Clark Mains pitched the Saugerties Dutchmen to a 5-4 squeaker over the New York Bullets, but Jim Mackey was victimized, 5-1, by Staatsburg Knicks as the Dutchmen split a pair of road games in the New York-New Jersey League.

Mains unfurled a seven-hitter, struck out seven and checked the New Yorkers with runners on second and third and two out in the bottom of the ninth.

With one run in and Saugerties ahead, 5-4, Mains induced the opposing pitcher to tap to the box for the final out. Mandelbaum went the distance for the New Yorkers, giving up nine hits and striking out 11. Three In First Saugerties scored three fast tallies in the first inning. Don McCraig, Hubie Barber and Boo Schaffer, the first three batters, loaded the bases with singles. Mandelbaum walked Joe Martin to force in a run. A throwing error by shortstop Zanga en-abled Barber and Schaffer to score with the second and third runs. An error by Sussman and a fielder's choice accounted for two Saugerties runs in the sixth when Iannone and Miller launched the rally with singles.

One of three New York markers in the fourth was unearned when Barber dropped Mandel-baum's fly ball. The others were the result of singles by Koski and Pappas, a base on balls and a double by Litski. Litski led the New Yorkers with a double and two singles in three times at bat. Barber, Schaffer and Joe Martin had two hits apiece for the Dutchmen.
